

Listening Examination Revision Homework

Revise = READ, COVER, WRITE, REPEAT. LISTEN

e.g. Read revision card. Turn it over. Parent tests you. Practice again until you can recall.

Listen to each genre using examples from You Tube

YOU NEED TO BE ABLE TO RECOGNISE THE SOUNDS OF INSTRUMENTS FROM EACH STYLE

20-30 minute sessions at a time. 2-3 times per week

Topic	Date Due in	Content	RAG, Questions and queries
Conventions of Pop Rock n roll Click here	12.1.19	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Learn key musical terminology associated with dynamics, rhythm, timbre, texture, structure, articulation, melody, pitch, tempo 2. Ensure you are able to recognise all Rock'n'Roll instruments 3. Listen music by Chuck Berry, Beach Boys, The Beatles, Elvis Presley
Conventions of Pop - Ballads Click here	19.1.18	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Learn key musical terminology associated with dynamics, rhythm, timbre, texture, structure, articulation, melody, pitch, tempo 2. Ensure you are able to recognise all instruments typically used in the Ballad genre of pop music 3. Know terminology in order to be able to describe vocal technique 4. Listen to ballads by Elton John, Whitney Huston, Bonnie Tyler
Rhythms of the World – calypso and samba Click here	26.1.19	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Learn the names and be able to recognise the sounds of instruments found in calypso and samba music 2. Learn key musical terminology associated with dynamics, rhythm, timbre, texture, structure, articulation, melody, pitch, tempo 3. Be able to describe the structure of calypso and samba music 4. Know where these styles come from 5. Be able to describe the kind of occasion you might hear this music being played
The Concerto Trough Time Click here	2.2.19	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Baroque solo concerto 2. The Baroque Concerto Grosso 3. The Classical Solo Concerto 4. The Romantic Solo Concerto 5. The way in which the orchestra developed from the Barque to the Romantic period 6. Ways in which composers wrote for the soloist and how this changed over time 	